

TALKING POINTS
WILL WOMEN
STOP WATCHING
LETTERMAN?
p.21

HEALTH & SCIENCE
The new face of human evolution
p.23

THE LAST WORD
When your spouse has screen sex
p.44

THE WEEK

THE BEST OF THE U.S. AND INTERNATIONAL MEDIA

Who will lead?

Limbaugh, Beck, and the future of the GOP
p.6

Where to buy ... a select exhibition in a private gallery

Andrew Bush:
Vector Portraits
M+B Gallery,
Los Angeles

If Los Angeles is defined by its highways, Angelenos are defined by their cars—whether they are hot pink convertibles, white Jags, or barely running patchwork clunkers. Andrew Bush took most of these “portraits” of cars and drivers in the 1990s, as he drove alongside his subjects. Despite their rigorously formal composition, the results can be drollly amusing. The drivers’ rigid, bored faces contrast with the brightly colored, curved, or scalloped vehicles. Absurdly detailed titles—e.g., Man Rolling Along (Whistle Audible?) on U.S. Route 101 at Approximately 55 MPH on a Summer Day in 1989—add to the humor. 612 N. Almont Drive, (310) 550-0050. Through Oct. 15. Prices range from $4,000 to $15,000.

Man Rolling Along ...

$3.00 US $4.00 CAN 38>
0 09281 03781 1

THE WEEK October 16, 2009

OCTOBER 16, 2009
VOLUME 9 ISSUE 434